

Classes, Programs and Events hosted by the *Friends of Boerner Botanical Gardens

Please call 414-525-5653 with questions.

Adult Classes and Programs

$10 members / $15 non-members

To register, please call (414) 525-5653.

Morels to Maitake: A Seasonal Look at the Wild Edible Mushrooms of Wisconsin

Thursday, April 3, 6:30 – 8pm

FUNGI magazine editor, Britt Bunyard, will discuss the popular and edible wild mushrooms of Wisconsin. You'll learn where and when to look for wild mushrooms, preservation, cooking tips and dangerous "lookalikes" to watch out for.

Gardening for Birders

Saturday, April 5, 10 – 11:30am

With a little planning you can make your backyard plantings attractive to birds and butterflies! Birds & Blooms Magazine Editor Stacy Tornio will share some of the magazine's best plant suggestions through the years.

The Basics of Beekeeping

Sunday, April 6, 1 – 3pm

Are you considering beekeeping as a new hobby? Learn about hive equipment and learn the ins and outs of this hobby from an expert.

Yoga at the Gardens

$72 for six-week session

To register, please call (414) 525-5653.

Yoga & Meditation at the Gardens - Open House/Demonstration

Wednesday, April 9, 6:30 – 7:30pm

Free Admission

Meet the instructor and preview of some of the movements that you will learn while taking this six week class. There will be a brief introduction to Raja Yoga.

Yoga at the Gardens

Wednesdays: April 23 - May 28, 6:30 - 7:45pm

Begin your yoga experience with Lata Massa, of the Himalayan Yoga and Meditation Center. We will be practicing gentle, beginning yoga in the Pana Vidya style, designed for adults of all flexibility levels. Please dress comfortably, bring a yoga mat, a light blanket or shawl and a small cushion.

Family Workshops

Families: $20 members / $25 non-members (Limit five people per family)

Individuals: $10 members / $12 non-members

To register, please call (414) 525-5656.

Creepy Crawly Zoo

Sunday, April 6, 1 – 3pm

Did you know that insects are the most dominant life form on the planet? Join FBBG and The Bug Whisperer, Antonio Gustin, for an afternoon sure to fuel your curiosity! Join us in the historic Garden House for an exciting display and learn all about creepy, yet beneficial creatures from the prairies of the Midwest to the deserts of the Southwest.

Family Events

Easter Family Event

April 20, 10am – 2pm

Free for FBBG members, $6 non-members

Includes children's activities and Sparkle the clown creating balloon animals!

Volunteer Training

To RSVP, please call (414) 525-5656.

In-Garden, Docent and Children's Education Volunteer Training

Wednesday, April 2, 9am – noon